

Orphan's/Unsupported Child's Benefit application form

MINISTRY OF SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT
TE MANATŪ WHAKAHIATO ORA

If you need more information go to our website workandincome.govt.nz or call us on 0800 559 009.

We suggest you read the instructions on pages 1 to 4 of this application form before starting to fill it out, so you get a feel for what is needed.

Support we can give you

If you're raising someone else's child, we may be able to help by meeting some of the costs involved.

Orphan's Benefit is for people looking after someone else's child because their parents have died or can't be found, or when they can't look after their child because the parent has a long-term illness.

Unsupported Child's Benefit is for people looking after someone else's child because the child's parents can't support them due to a family breakdown.

The child you are looking after must be:

- aged under 18 years, and
- single, and
- financially dependent on you.

You must:

- be aged 18 years or older, and the main caregiver of the child, and
- not be the child's natural or adoptive parent or the step-parent if you are applying for the Unsupported Child's Benefit.

Both you and the child must also normally live in New Zealand.

You must give us all the information we need.

If you don't have all the information we need, talk with us and we may be able to help.

If we find out later that any information you give us is not true, or that you knew information you should have told us and did not tell us, we may stop paying your benefit. You might need to pay money back. In some cases you could even be prosecuted.

Orphan's / Unsupported Child's Benefit obligations and privacy

MINISTRY OF SOCIAL
TE MANATŪ WHAKAHIATO ORA

You need to read and complete this section.

This part of the application form:

- lists your obligations
- explains what will happen if obligations are not met
- explains how we protect the information you give to us, and what we can do with it
- includes a signature page for you to sign.

Obligations

These are what you have to do to receive payments from Work and Income. Please read all the obligations because they could apply to you if your circumstances change.

Change of circumstances

I must tell Work and Income immediately if :

- the care and/or support arrangements for the child change
- the financial circumstances of the child change
- either the child or I intend to travel overseas
- I have changes to personal details (such as name, address or bank account number)
- either the child or I have any other change that may affect my benefit entitlement or rate.

Not telling us about changes in your circumstances

I understand that if I don't tell Work and Income about changes that might affect whether I can get Orphan's/Unsupported Child's Benefit or the amount I'm paid, that:

- my benefit may be reviewed and cancelled, and
- I may have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment that I have received, and
- Work and Income may impose a penalty (up to three times the value of the overpayment), and
- I may be prosecuted and fined or imprisoned.

You have the right to review or dispute any decision to reduce or stop your benefit.

How we protect your privacy

MINISTRY OF SOCIAL

Collecting your information

We collect your personal information, so we can provide income support, NZ Super or Veteran's Pension, Student Allowance, or Loans and connect you with employment, education and housing services. We do this under various Acts, which are all listed on our website at workandincome.govt.nz/privacy

- To help us do this, we collect information about your identity, your relevant history, and your eligibility for our services.
- We get this information directly from you, and we sometimes collect information about you from others, including other government agencies.
- You can choose not to give us your personal information, but we might not be able to help you if you don't.

Using your information

We use the information you give us to make decisions about the best way to help you.

- These decisions may be about:
 - whether you're eligible for our services
 - running our operations and ensuring our services are effective
 - the services we'll provide in the future.

Sharing your information

Sometimes, we need to share your information outside our Ministry to reach our goal of helping New Zealanders to be safe, strong, and independent.

- To do this, we may share your information with:
 - prospective employers to help you find work
 - contracted service providers that help us to help you
 - health providers if we need your medical information to assess your eligibility
 - other government agencies when we have an agreement with them
 - some other governments if you may be eligible to get or are getting an overseas pension.
- We also share personal information when the law says we have to.

Respecting you and your information

We make sure we follow the Privacy Act to do what's right when we use your information.

- We treat you and your information with respect, by acting responsibly and being ethical.
- We make sure any technology we use meets strict security standards so it keeps your information safe.

Get in touch if you have a question

You have a right to ask to see your personal information, and to ask for it to be corrected if it's wrong.

- If you have a question or a complaint, please get in touch.
- You can find full details about what we do with personal information in our privacy notice at: workandincome.govt.nz/privacy
