spotlight on Transitional Housing

This week's drop-in session was on transitional housing

Let's recap what was covered and where you can find more information

Transitional housing is short-term accommodation for people with an immediate housing need, funded by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development.

- All other housing options for taiohi should be explored and exhausted before looking into emergency housing
- This means that you must look into all transitional housing options before considering emergency housing

Check out the learning module on transitional housing for more information

Our provider website has detailed information on housing options for taiohi
